Welcome

A warm welcome to Open Studios 2022

Years ago I had a studio at the top of my cottage, down an impossible Stroud lane on the way to nowhere and everywhere. In those days there was an Open Studios Bus Tour, and minibuses of art lovers would suddenly arrive in the house. The art was everywhere so I'd just open the door and say 'help yourself'.

For us artists, Open Studios forces us to have a bit of a reckoning and a tidy up - not too much though. Maybe find work we'd forgotten about, maybe do a little curating and definitely have some terrific conversations. I'm not opening mine this year so I can go and have a snoop at everyone else's. It's impossible to know how many artists there are here - Stroud has its own magnetic force, something to do with the wonky landscape makes it entirely special, unlike anywhere else, and full of the most excellent people. Follow your nose, see as much as you can and wear a comfortable pair of trainers.

Nick Grellier, artist.

When The Righteous Prosper The City Rejoices a photographic exhibition by Rider Shafique

11th -25th June

Saturday & Sundays 11am-6pm

Wednesdays - Fridays 10am-3pm

SVA, 4 John St, Stroud, GL5 2HA

@r7gin

Rider Shafique is a lyricist, poet, MC and recording artist from Gloucester. He is a prolific and versatile MC at both live events and recording, with countless features across dub, dancehall, hip hop, dubstep and drum & bass. Since 2015 Rider has focused on various creative forms of expression, including photography exploring identity, intensively and consciously redressing the current imbalance of positive Black representation.

Rider Shafique is a round the clock artist, creating visual & performance art to educate & inspire for his project I-DENTITY. This has included photography exhibitions, films, interviews, workshops & a radio interview series for Bristol-based Noods Radio called I-MC. He drew on his own experiences of alienation growing up in British society to create two tracks of spoken meditations on racial identity which were released on Young Echo Records in 2018. Boomkat reviewed: “Sterling first volley from Bristol’s Young Echo Records, featuring Rider Shafique’s incisive, intimate reflections on I-Dentity in modern Britain. Perhaps best received as a clear response to the divisive, race-baiting politics of our times, in both parts Shafique presents an ice-cool yet impassioned dissection, his thoughts in a rooted, low-key style that resonates with the delivery & impetus of classic dub poetry from Linton Kwesi Johnson and Mutubaruka.”

Working with Khali Ackford and Jamell Ackford, Rider Shafique is now developing a safe creative space at the Trinity Centre in Bristol, that encourages people of African, Caribbean and Asian heritage to explore their identities.

Town Time

Bennett & McDermott

Saturday 11th June 1-3pm

SVA, 4 John St, Stroud, GL5 2HA

www.bennettandmcdermott.com

Town Time is a playful and contemplative participatory art project that invites visitors like you, to momentarily uncouple from the constant motion of measured time and question the reasons behind society's need for us to be cooperative and compliant in its precisely organised structures.

The project is inspired by an archive in the Museum in the Park that records how in 1858 Stroud was one of the last towns in the country to switch from 'town time' to Greenwich Mean Time (GMT) following the arrival of the railways. Prior to this standardisation of time, each town or city was slightly out of step with each other and GMT, basing it's time on the rising and setting of the sun.

Site Festival visitors are invited to select an activity from a 'menu' of options to do with the artists for nine minutes, the amount of time that was 'lost' when Stroud switched from town time to GMT 163 years ago.

The focus of Bennett & McDermott's collaborative art practice is to produce contemporary art that is accessible, engaging, and promotes the values of generosity, community and creativity. Bennett & McDermott are based in Stroud, Gloucestershire where they live with their two young daughters.

After the successful Red Thread Exhibition in Stroud last year, portrait photographer Emilie Sandy and Saori weaver Erna Janine continue to expand their portfolio of collaborative works with this new exhibition exploring the concept of the Inner Child through storytelling, textiles and photography. This work was partly co-created by the public of Stroud during the 'We Are Community - Are We' project at SVA in February 2022.

Previous collaborations by Emilie Sandy and Erna Janine included Sen'i [Transition] for the Japanese Textile and Craft Festival in London 2020, and Red Thread [Motherhood] in May 2021.

Emilie has been working as a professional portrait photographer for over 18 years. Her diverse background and childhood surrounded by artists and eccentrics in Iceland has lent itself to a photographic style that is entirely her own: poignant, elegant, feminine. Erna Janine is a Dutch hand weaver trained in Iceland and Japan. She runs Freeweaver Saori Studio in London and at the Centre for Science and Art in Stroud. Her main focus is community based creative textile projects and sustainably sourced yarns such as khadi cotton and forest silk.

Meet the Community Group

Tuesday 14th June 11am-1pm

The Middle of the Hill Community Group is working with artist Rose Illingworth (founder of Art For Action), and SVA to use the power of art to make the footpath running through Noucell's Cross more appealing for people to use. Reinventing & reclaiming this pathway will turn it into a vibrant community space to visit, pause and enjoy and engage with. This is especially important for the tunnel adjacent to the Foodhub as it is envisaged that social events will naturally 'spill out' in to the currently unattractive area when the Community Cafe is open, with it being a continuation of the outside seating, eating and meeting area. The community group has developed the Community Cafe area through the money they were awarded last year by the National Lottery and Ikea.

Noucell's Cross is an estate and footpath located between Summer Street and Bisley Old Road in Stroud. The estate was influenced by brutalist architectural design and was constructed in the early 1970s. It replaced a number of houses and a police station along Bisley Old Road and Middle Hill that were demolished to enable road widening.

This project is being funded through the Arts Council England's Platinum Jubilee 'Lets Create' fund. A further artist commission is planned later in the summer subject to successful funding.

SVA supporting artists since 1996

Site Festival Open Studios was launched in 1997, just a year after SVA was set up, with the opening of the John Street Studios for the first time to the public. For us it was really important that SVA was not just about the building but about the community of artists who lived out in the Five Valleys, working in their spare rooms, sheds and on their kitchen worktops as well as the more formal studio spaces.

The word OPEN not only reflects the open studio door welcoming curious visitors to discover the wonderful world of the artists studio but also it reflects SVA's OPENNESS to all artists of all backgrounds, ages, disciplines and experience. Open Studios is not selected and we positively welcome conversations with artists who are facing barriers to developing their practice.

Site Festival Open Studios celebrates the incredible diversity of creative talent that exists here in the Valleys, supports artists making a living from their work and builds meaningful social connections in the community.
